

Break-Even Units

The break-even units for a business are the number of units the business needs to sell to arrive at the break-even point (where there is neither profit nor loss).

$$\frac{\text{Operating Expenses}}{\text{Gross Profit per Unit}} = \text{Break-Even Units}$$

For Example

$$\frac{$3,000}{$4} = 750$$